

ADMINISTRATIVE JUSTICE ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH AFRICA
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW STUDENT ESSAY
COMPETITION 2021

Showcase your knowledge of
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW
and develop your competence in this area of the law by submitting an essay TODAY.

PRIZES include:

First prize: ~~R3000~~ R6000

Second prize: R2000

Third prize: R1500

and opportunities to job shadow in the public law teams of leading South African law firms

“ The recent crop of essays submitted in AdJASA’s [2020] Student Essay Competition gives much reason for optimism about the future of administrative law in South Africa. Clearly, students have thought deeply about the current issues facing administrative law and have expressed themselves most articulately on the subject. ”

Adv (Dr) Peter Volmink (Johannesburg Bar) – member of the 2020 judging panel.

Top essays will be published in a special AdJASA publication.

Competition rules:

- Essays should deal with any aspect of administrative law.
- Essays should be written in English and be between 4000 and 6000 words in length (incl. footnotes, excl. bibliography).
- Essays must be in the SALJ house style.
- Any currently registered LLB (or other undergraduate law degree) student at any South African higher education institution may enter the competition.
- Essays must be individually authored.
- Essays must be submitted by 30 November 2021.
- A first, second and third prize may be awarded, but the judging panel has a discretion not to award and/or award additional prizes.
- By submitting an entry, the author agrees to the publication of the essay by AdJASA.

Submit your entry in pdf format to adjasa@adjasa.org

For more information visit www.adjasa.org.

Sponsored by

SL LAW

Legally, at the forefront.

Le Roux
Sampson Loggerenberg

Only Forwards.

LexisNexis South Africa is a leading provider of content and technology solutions, and part of RELX, a major publisher and information provider that serves customers in more than 175 countries with more than 30,000 employees worldwide.

Y Burns & R Henrico Administrative Law 5th ed
ISBN:9780639008820 / 780639008837
The approach adopted in the first four editions has been retained, namely that administrative law is a specialized branch of constitutional law and that a sound knowledge of constitutional law and a thorough understanding of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 are prerequisites for an understanding of administrative law.